

WHO WE ARE:

SAACR was launched in 2011 as a grassroots community organization in partnership with Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (BHRS) Prevention & Early Intervention.

SAACR officially organized and became a 501C3 in 2012. Our membership is comprised of community leaders and community members. We have an array of cultural diversity which includes the ability to communicate in the following languages: Vietnamese, Laotian, Hmong, Cambodian, Khmu, Filipino and Thai.

WHAT WE DO:

- Develop leadership within the Asian American community
- Organize Annual Youth Leadership Conference in partnership with Modesto City Schools
- Support Tzu-Chi Foundation Health Clinic and Rogers Drug Store Health Fair
- Advance collaboration with community organizations and community building with participation at the International Heritage Festival (food booth & stage performances)
- Provide cultural and intercultural support for all Asian Americans in Stanislaus County
- Build alliances with advocacy and policy organizations
- Value the diversity and gifts across all cultures
- Participate in the 2020 Census with El Concilio to Outreach to the Asian community in Stanislaus County
- Collaborate with the Stanislaus County Public Health to do Outreach & Distribution of Covid-19 PPE to the Asian community
- Organize Covid-19 Equity Vaccine Clinics for the AAPI Community in Stanislaus County

“Bridging the gap through relationships, culture, leadership, and support”
