Mission Statement:

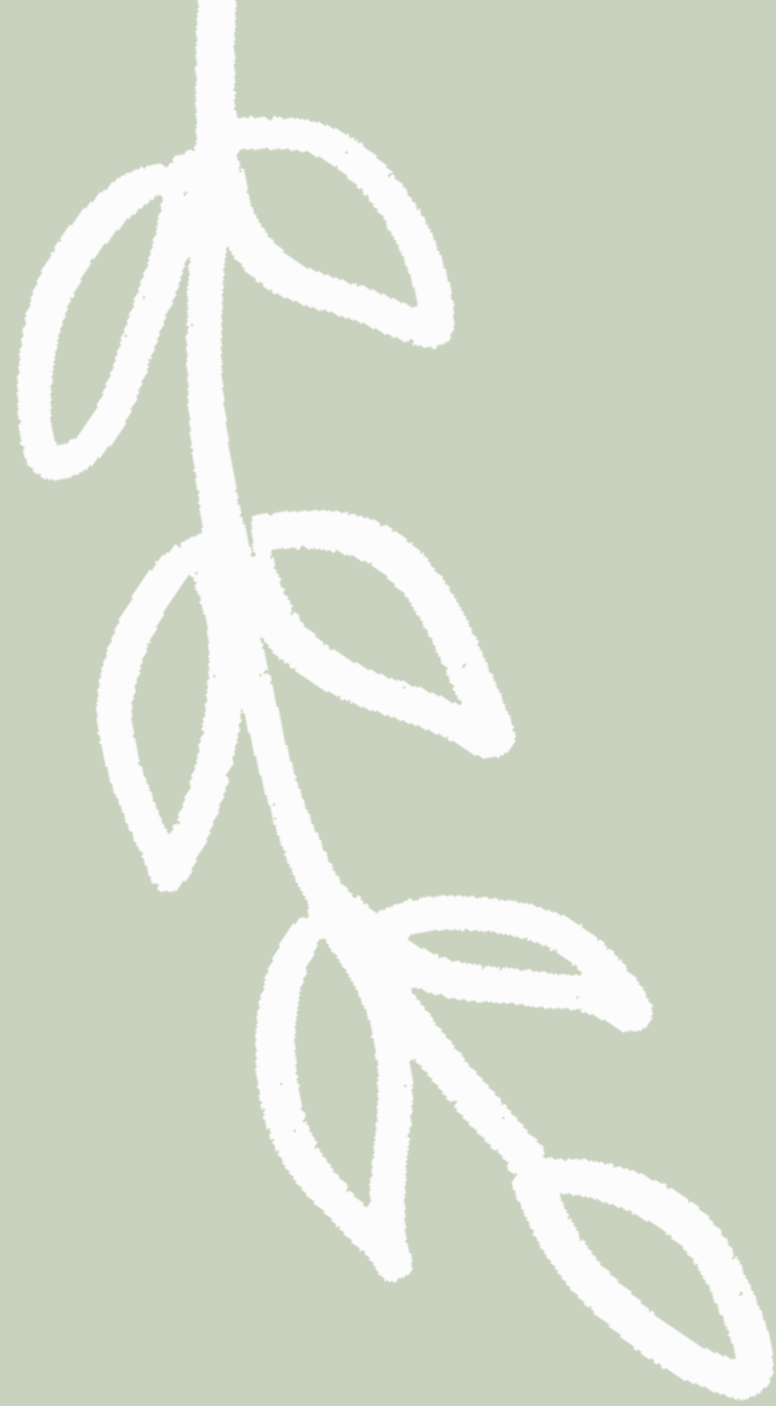

Promote the importance of mental and emotional health in the Spanish-speaking population through presentations to groups in face-to-face and virtual modalities through: talks, workshops, seminars, and conferences.

Vission Statement:

Create opportunities for those who have Spanish as their first language, so that they are able to implement tools and resources that make it easier for them to understand and navigate emotions and behaviors that may have an impact on their mental health.

Our Values:

- Integrity
- Service
- Empathy
- Trust
- Respect
- Empowerment
- Appreciation

Goals:

- Bridge the gap in mental health awareness in my Spanish-speaking community.
- Equip the community with helpful resources to deal with challenging situations.
- Make mental/emotional health a priority for individuals, couples, and families.
- For participants to have a better understanding of the impact of mental health on physical health.
- Facilitate safe environments for participants to ask questions and obtain meaningful learnings.
- Help people perceive the subject of mental health as a comfortable subject to talk about instead of seeing it as a taboo subject.
- Plant seeds for a healthier human development.

What I Take Into Consideration:

Cultural Identification

Understanding of Particular
Expressions/beliefs
in Spanish

Increased mental health awareness

Sense of Belonging

"I am not the only one"/"I am not alone"

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT:

- Satisfaction survey: At the end of the workshop, participants will be asked to respond a brief survey to ensure that the services provided are of quality as well as to work in areas of opportunity for facilitators.
- Feedback: Facilitators may meet with the agency staff to share insights and meaningful information pertaining to the observed response of participants to the workshop.

My Purpose Overall:

- I see you
- I hear you
- I feel you
- I understand your struggles
- I am with you
- And you are not alone!

My wish for my audience is that they feel seen, heard and cared for.
